John Maxwell, #1 New York Times Best-selling Author, Coach, and Most Influential Leadership Expert

Developing our personal potential is the most critical step in harnessing the potential of others.

Could it be that many of us have failed to expand our potential because we have allowed what we perceive as capacity to define us? What if our limits are not really our limits?

John Maxwell identifies 17 core capacities with clear, actionable tools to increase potential in each.

11:00 – 12:30 Developing The Leader Within You

John Maxwell, #1 New York Times Best-selling Author, Coach, and Most Influential Leadership Expert

Leadership is influence – nothing more, nothing less. And your ability to influence, that is, to gain followers, hinges on your ability to become a better leader. John Maxwell explains ten principles to enhance your leadership ability, including influence, integrity, attitude and vision.

13:30 – 15:00 Multipliers: How The Best Leaders Make Everyone Smarter

Liz Wiseman, Best-selling Author, Speaker, & Executive Advisor

Are you a genius or a genius maker? We've all had experience with two dramatically different types of leaders. The first type drains intelligence, energy, and capability from the people around them, the genius makers use their intelligence to amplify the smarts and capabilities of the people around them. Liz Wiseman introduces five disciplines that distinguish Multipliers from Diminishers and provides practice tips for leading like a Multiplier.

15:00 – 15:30 AFTERNOON TEA

15:30 – 17:00 The Five Question Leader: Work Less Hard, Have More Impact

Michael Bungay Stanier, Author of Wall Street Journal Best-seller The Coaching Habit

Managers and leaders find themselves stuck in three vicious circles. They're frustrated by teams that have become overdependent on them. They're overwhelmed by the amount of work they have to do. And they're disconnected from their own Great Work – the work that has impact, the work that has meaning. Sound familiar?

Breaking out of those vicious circles is simpler than you might think. Michael Bungay Stanier presents five essential questions that can help managers and leaders increase the focus, courage and resilience they need to have more impact in the work they do.

OUR SPEAKER LINEUP

JOHN MAXWELL

"A leader is one who knows the way, goes the way, and shows the way."

MICHAEL BUNGAY STANIER

"You have to help people do more of the work that has impact and meaning."
